Editing a yearbook is no easy task. Everyone and everything connected with Pewitt School was considered when THE ROUND-UP was in the planning stages. Actual production involved writing copy, drawing layouts, writing headlines, captioning pictures, creating a cover, choosing paper, deciding type and head style, cropping pictures, editing, copy reading and proofreading. All this was done under the constant pressure of the deadline.

The staff was small and, by no means, a representative group of the student body; thus, it was doubly hard to create a book that would satisfy the majority. Our intention in changing the format of the 1974 ROUND-UP was to picture the year in day-by-day activities and to list the participants in those day-by-day activities. It is hoped that our intention is a satisfactory answer to your question of what purpose a yearbook should serve.

Annually yours,

'74 Round Up Staff

SPORTS

1973 BRAHMA

Our Brahma football team was made up of ready and willing young men—young men who were willing to devote most of their time and efforts to months of hard practice—young men who would “keep on keeping on” when their spirits were low. What makes all the hard work and physical agony worth while? The way the members set aside and forget the bad times, but smile and call to mind the happy memories of their football activities.

Brahma Basketball '73-'74

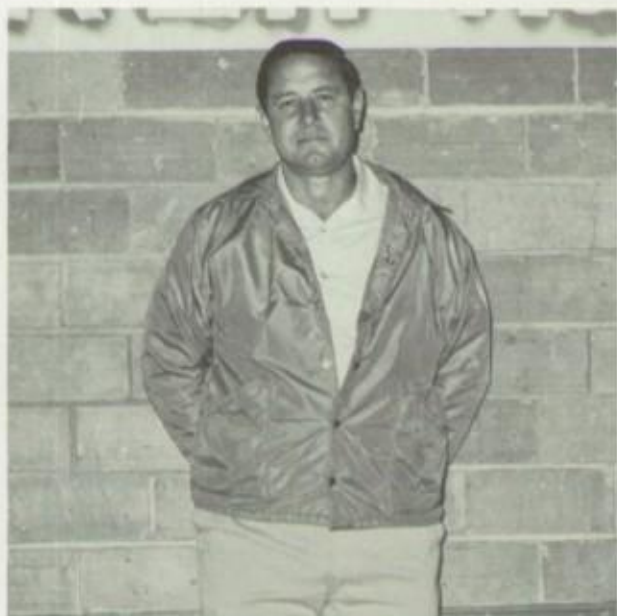

Coach Shaw—Varsity

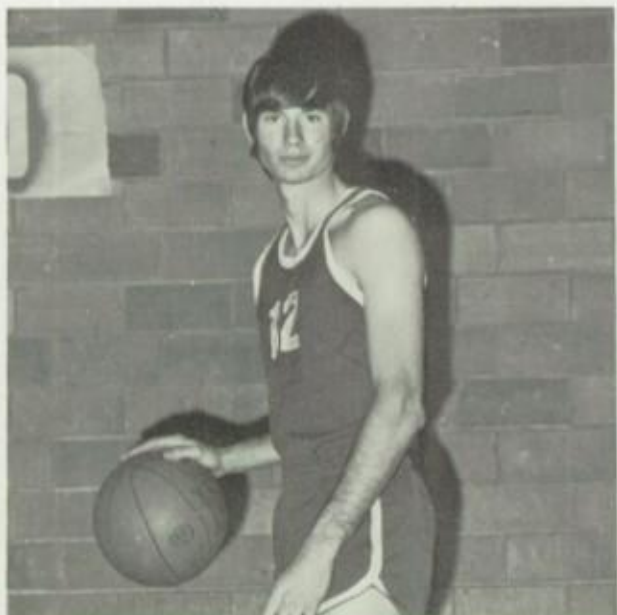

Braham Varsity Team

The Brahma Varsity Basketball team finished the season with a 15-13 record. During the season they won consolation trophies at the New Boston and Linden-Kildare tournaments. The Brahmas placed second in the Karnack tourney. The final game of the season, against the Hooks Hornets, was the deciding game for the champion of the second round of district play. The Brahmas fought to the end but were unable to overcome the powerful Hornets. Pewitt has something to be proud of in the 1973-74 Brahma Basketball Team.

'73-'74 BRAHMA PEP SQUAD

They brave the heat of early September and suffer the hard chill of November to watch their heroes wage battle on the gridiron.

"They" are the high school pep squad members and the cheerleaders. Their job it is to crash the silence with encouraging noise when their team is on the short end of the score and scream for more when their wonderful eleven needs to "block that kick," "hold that line" or "get that ball."

It's all a part of building the BRAHMA SPIRIT!!!

Pep squad officers of '73-'74:
 President—Elizabeth Moore
 Vice-president—Sandy Belyeu
 Secretary—Kathy Traylor
 Treasurer—Brenda Clayton

Pep Squad Activities

The Pep Squad activities of 73-74 included serving the football boys lemonade after practices, Homecoming activities with the Pep Squad Beau, making posters to help boost spirit, and planning the downtown pep rally in Naples before the game with White Oak.

- . . . Cheerleaders yelling their hearts out for the team they love.
- . . . The grandstands full of loyal fans boosting their team, no matter what the weather condition.
- . . . The basketball team sweating it out in the gym to please the crowd on game nights.
- . . . A coach who devotes his life to the participants.
- A band that marches for the glory of the school.
